

International Institute of Health Management Research

Training Programme on Hospital Management

June 2 - 9, 2017, Venue:- IIHMR, New Delhi, India

Third batch of the Training on Hospital Management has been organized from June 2-9, 2017 at IIHMR Delhi. There are 24 Hospital Managers from Jigme Dorji Wangchuck National Referral Hospital, Bhutan. The course was inaugurated by Dr. Sanjiv Kumar, Director, IIHMR Delhi. Dr. Sanjiv Kumar emphasized on the quality, transparency and value system in IIHMR Delhi. He also shared his experience With the health sector and hospitals during his inaugural address. Dr. A. K. Khokhar, Dean – Training introduced the course contents and shared his views on Hospital functioning in the changing environment. The course has been designed, keeping in view the digitization of health and hospital service of Bhutan. Course aims at interaction amongst the participants and resource persons, sharing of experiences, case studies, group works and field visit. Dr. Khokhar said that, by the end of the course the participants will definitely feel that the course is going to be helpful with regard to human resource, supply chain, quality issues and other areas related to hospital functioning.